PRESIDENT'S CORNER

Upcoming Meeting

We are very privileged to have two terrific speakers at our upcoming meeting on September 27th at 7pm at the First Congregational Church at 1415 North K Street (our neighborhood's polling location). As indicated in our agenda below, our first speaker will be Ms. Shelley Vana, our District's Palm Beach County Commissioner. She will be presenting an update on current topics of interest as well as answering questions from residents. Our second speaker will be Mr. Andy Amoroso who wears several hats in the City of Lake Worth. Mr. Amoroso is on the Community Redevelopment Agency (CRA) Board, the Downtown Cultural Alliance (DCA) and is the president of Mango Groves.

September General Meeting Agenda:

1. General Announcements
2. PBSO Crime Report
3. Ms. Shelley Vana (PB County Commissioner)
4. Mr. Andy Amoroso (CRA and Downtown Merchant)

City Elections

This November's election features four candidates running for two seats on the City Commission: Carla Blockson and Christopher McVoy (District 2) and Lisa Maxwell and Suzanne Mulvehill (District 4). College Park will not be holding a candidates debate, but will be supporting several:

- October 11th – Brogues (Hosted by South Palm Park)
- October 12th – St Andrews Episcopal (Hosted by Parrot Cove)
- October 20th – LW Playhouse (Hosted by NAPC)

Spillway Park

The newly formed Spillway Park Grant Committee met this August to review the plans and develop strategies for purchasing and installing the new park equipment. For more updates or to participate, please contact the board via email collegeparkboard@collegeparklakeworth.com.

Sincerely,
Brent Whitfield

The September Meeting will be on Monday, September 27th @ 7:00 pm @ First Congregational Church
1415 North K Street (Polling Location)

Other Information

CPHA HALLOWEEN PARTY

The College Park Neighborhood will be holding the Annual Halloween Block Party on Harbor Drive the last weekend of October. More details to come.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

www.collegeparklakeworth.com has been upgraded thanks to the Esplin Group, Inc. A significant new feature is the College Park Business Directory, which is a free opportunity for residents to "List" a short description of the services they provide and contact information.
